

JASON CHAPIN

Jason has more than 25 years of workforce development experience. He has worked for CUNY, SUNY, The WorkPlace and WCA on federal, state and foundation grant projects and workforce initiatives that have benefited more than 25,000 job seekers and thousands of employers. He recently managed a nearly $10 million federal grant that trained and placed more than 400 job seekers with hundreds of employers in the Hudson Valley. Previously, he has served on the New Castle Town Council and Child Care Council of Westchester boards. He is currently board treasurer of The Harry Chapin Foundation.
