

Polly Peace

Polly is the Executive Director of the Country Childrens Center(CCC), a childcare program in Northern Westchester serving children ages 8 weeks to 14 years.

She has held this position for 34 years. During her tenure she has grown the CCC from a small preschool in the basement of a Katonah church to the nationally recognized childcare model it is today. Polly earned her BA at the University of Massachusetts Amherst. She continued her Early Childhood Education at the University of Vermont, Westchester Community College and SUNY Purchase.

She is a current member of NAEYC (National Association of the Education of Young Children), the Westchester Early Childhood Director's Network and recently served on the Childcare Council's Business Advisory Council. .

She is a graduate of Westchester Leadership and was inducted into the Childcare Council's inaugural "Hall of Heroes" in 2019.

.