

Tibi Guzmán Bio (Short Version)

Tibi Guzmán is the Executive Director and CEO of The Arc Westchester, the largest agency in Westchester County, NY, supporting individuals with developmental disabilities, including those on the autism spectrum, and their families.

She has been a part of The Arc's leadership team for more than 14 years, overseeing different aspects of the organization. Prior to following her passion to make a difference for people with developmental disabilities, she was a senior healthcare executive at St John's Riverside Hospital. Ms. Guzmán is parent of an adult with autism and has two sons. She has a B.S. from Fordham University, an M.P.S. from The New School for Health Service Administration and an M.A. in Economics from Fordham University. She was named one of Westchester's Top Woman in Business by 914INC. Magazine in 2018.