KATRINA VENTURINA

Manager

EXPERIENCE

In her work with BDO's philanthropic clients, Katrina frequently serves as coach and advisor to grantees, provides financial planning and analysis assistance, and delivers on curriculum development for peer exchange workshops and convenings.

Prior to joining BDO, Katrina spent a decade in the nonprofit sector, beginning her career as a Research Coordinator at Weill Cornell Medicine, and was most recently a Program Associate in the Medical Research program at the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation where she participated in managing a $70 million grant portfolio.

Katrina is on the boards of Kundiman, a nonprofit organization dedicated to uplifting Asian American writers and literature, and Cause Effective, an organization dedicated to developing and empowering nonprofit leaders in New York City. She also serves on the finance and audit committee of Dance/NYC, a hub for knowledge, practice and performance of dance with a focus on justice, equity and inclusion in New York City.
